S. J. RABER.

A Yankee in a foreign land was strolling round one day
And heard the strains of music grand not very far away,

The Yankee left this foreign land and started home again
He said "There cheers for Uncle Sam Oh how I love that name,"

Little Puff of Smoke, Good-Night
A Southern Croon

Words by R.W. LARDNER.

Andante

Lit- tle col- ored child,  He’s been run- ning wild,  Run- ning all the live- long day,  sleep,  Go to sleep and rest,  On your mam-my’s breast,

Lit- tle shin- ing star,  In the sky a- far,  Tells my boy to go to Read- y now to seek the hay;  Mam- my sits right near While the an- gels watch will keep;  Sweet- est dreams will come

Pick-a-niny dear
To my sugar-plum
Nothin's goin' to harm him,
To my little heart's de-
no,
light,
Mummy she, her watch will keep,
Cuddle down and shut your eyes.

While her little boy's asleep
On his pillow white as snow,
Waking with the bright sunrise,
Little Puff of Smoke, Good-night.

Refrain
Time to sleep and rest,
In your cozy nest,
Time to close those little lids down tight; Other kids like you,

They are sleeping too, Waiting for tomorrow sunshine bright, When the new dawn breaks,

Pick-a-rainy wales, Little Puff of Smoke, Good-night.
In the Same Old Way

By NATHANIEL D. MANN

This composition tells a charming little love story; is written in a light vein by this famous composer of popular, high-class and sacred music, and is proclaimed by all who hear it, the sweetest story and melody heard this season.
