Mandy Lane

Slow moderato.

There's an old log cabin on the
When the cotton fields are bathed in

Swaminy above
Soft moonlight
Loving time

That's the place my heart is always pinning for Nestled by the ivy vine we spoon each summer night joy and day

Pretty little maiden waiting there for me,
Preach'er's gwine to tie the knot next Sunday morn.

By the door, when the steamer floats along the shore,
Life will always be one grand, sweet old Swanney, moon.

CHORUS.

Mandy Lane, Mandy Lane, Moon shining on the fields of Sugar cane,
All o' the time In rain or shine, Promise you'll be true, Oh, Mandy come to me, do I long for you.

I'm your honey boy and you're my Lady Lou, Mandy, Mandy, my pretty Mandy Lane, I love you. you.
