What's the matter Hon-ey there's a tear in your eye, Do Run and play my Hon-ey by the mul-ber-ry tree, Just

White folks say you don't know where you go when you die, You can't tell me you don't feel so blue.
Stay right near the win-dow where your mam-my can see, Now don't you feel so blue.

Don't you fear, I will tell where colored children go when they leave here.
I love you, and the white folks told me Hon-ey, that they love you too.

There's a happy land a-bove the sky so blue, And listen child what's wait-ing for you.
If they speak a-bout the skies up o-ver head, Just tell them dear what your mam-my said.

Chorus.

You lay your black kink'ry head in a bed on a pillow of white When you sleep tight.

The angels watch over you every night The graveyard creaks pop from the ground With sweet nooses all around.

Old Uncle Joe is playing tunes upon his old banjo The streets are all paved with gold I am told.

told every bird in the skies has shining eyes now ain't that nice so very nice

Every little kink'ry headed girl and boy has the cutest sil-ver po-ny for a toy In the place they call the Pick-a-shinee Par-a-dis You lay your dise.
