Voice

I used to have a dear old
My dear old Mammy, my never

Mammy, in the days of old Black Joe,
She used to tell me where she learned this mystery.

And if I seemed surprised she'd look so wise
And say, "Ma chile, that's his to..."
She said the angels built old Dixie, And I know that's not a lie!
But she lived so long in Dixie, She was old enough to fib.
For to me it looks like heaven, And I'll tell you what the angels did...

CHORUS

They built a little garden for the rose, And they called it Dixie.

And they built a summer breeze to keep the snows far away from Dixie.

And They Called etc. 4 Land... They built the finest place I've known... When they built my home sweet home... Nothing was forgotten in the land of cotton... From the clover to the honeycomb... And then they took an angel from the skies... And they gave her heart to

And They Called etc. 4
me. She had a bit of heaven in her eyes, just as blue as blue can but: They put some fine spring chickens in the land. And taught my Mam-my how to use a frying pan. They made it twice as nice as Paradise. And they called it Dixie-land. They built a land...

And They Called etc. 4.
