WHAT YER CAN'T GET YER GOT TO DO WITHOUT

Words by N. D. McDonnell

Music by John F. Rourke

PUBLISHED BY Henry Kirby Music Co.
What You Can't Get, You Got To Do Without.

Words by JOHN D. McDONELL.

Music by JOHN F. ROURKE.

Ruf-us Wil-son was a coon No One day he start-ed on the road with a luck could ev - er find And all the wealth that he pos - sessed was rag time min-strel show Which soon got strand-ed and poor Ruf-e once on-ly in his mind

But he nev-er lost a bit of sleep and if more was filled with woe

When the show was on the fi nal night it

Copyright 1906 by Henry Krey Music Co. trouble ever came looked bad for the troupe

It never jarred him For the manager grabbed the in the least he always was the same Gate receipts and quickly flew the soup

The

ne'er seemed to worry him when on the losing town where they got stranded was a one horse country side while drifting through this wicked world on place and the only thing Rufus pockets held was a

What you can't get is Life's uncertain tide lot of empty space
And when hard luck knocked When a touching message at his door to fill him with dismay This

as any philosopher would easily grin and say Beat it back home while your shoes are good Poor Rufe said with a sigh

CHORUS.

What you can't get you got to do without Taint no use to worry, fret or

What you can't get Just stick it out and as sure as sin some day you are bound to win. They say that Rome wasn't built in a day. Sometime things will come my way. You may kick, you may growl. You may hol-der head and shout. But what you can't get, you got to do without. What you can't get.
JUST BECAUSE IT REMINDS ME OF YOU

G. FRANK PERKINS

HARRY J. NORTON

CHORUS

Just be-cause it re-minds me of you dear Just be-cause it re-calls hap-py days

I

wonder some-times if you min-s me And if you will love me al-ways

In the twilight I sit by the ri-ver Where of-ten I sit by the ri-ver

I

love ev-ry spot so fa-mi liar Just be-cause it re-minds me of you

Copyright, MCMVI, by Henry Krey Music Co.

COMPLETE COPIES AT ALL MUSIC STORES