MR. VOLUNTEER,

or,

You Don't Belong to the Regulars, You're Just a Volunteer.

CHORUS. Cæleste.

You don't belong to the reg - u- lar, you're just a vol - un - teer....... You're on - ly one of the rank and file, but some one holds you dear......

Many a man's heart will sigh, and in the com - ing year........

Uncle Sam will take off his hat to you, Mister Vol - un - teer....... You tear.......
YOU'VE JUST A LITTLE NIGGER, STILL YOU'VE MINE, ALL MINE.

LULLABY.

Andante moderate.  Words and Music by PAUL DRESSER.

1. Dere ain't no use o' cryin' in' now, So nig-er go to bed.

2. Per-haps you don't amount to much, But nig-er just de same, Some ain't no use o' fussin', nig-er ba-bies mustn't weep, We day among de call used folks you'll have a great big name, Of

I JUST WANT TO GO BACK AND START THE WHOLE THING OVER.

By PAUL DRESSE.

Andante Moderato.

1. I wandered back in a dreamy way, to scenes of childhood.
2. I strolled around the old red barn, I stood beside the joy. And the strangest feeling over me came, as I well. All covered over with clinging vine that
