Moderato

PIANO

VOICE

I must admit that I'm a Jazz-game
Some-times I wonder if I'm going
To ev-ery single place that I go,
A lit-terary from Jazz-con-ting
They play that Jazz
When I'm a-sleep

razz-a-razz That seems to drive my troubles a-way
I just can't keep That fun-my mu-sie out of my head
But now that we have pro-hi.
There's something might-y queer abi-ten, I've got a creep-y su-per-sti-tion

Now that it's dry,
they're goin' to try. To take a-

-boot it,
Some-how I can't exis-t without it,
It's got me sure,
I can't en-dure To live with-

way those Blues some-day,
I'm right down on my knees,
Just lis-ten to me please. Oh,
-out those rag-gy tunes,
I love my Jazz, I vow,
Don't take it from me now. Oh,
CHORUS
(What sorrow that music has, Just lingers to that tone of Jazz)
Don't take away those Blues, Don't take...

(The longest in sight of jump-in' those that just keep you swingin') away those Blues; All that life holds for me.

When I am in the brownin' for I live a jazzin' dreamin')
(Don't you stop, don't you dare to stop)
Is just a raggy melody.

(Just that dark old-town where there man no age of iron)
But if those Blues must go Then you can lay me low.

(Down in the ground, where rest a sound can get a sound)
You can take away my gin, Take away my booze, Take away my hat and even take away my shoes. But Lawdy, Lawdy, Mister man, don't take away those Blues.
