Intro.

Moderato

I just received a letter from my pal,
I'll say goodbye to all the clubs.

(VAMP)

I just received a letter from my gal,
I just now bought a ticket.
I'll say goodbye to all the great white ways,
I'm tired of all the strife on.

on a train that leaves for Birmingham,
My folks will
old Broadway I'm off for Birmingham, There's someone

meet me at the station gate,
With a welcome hand,
waiting down in Alabama,
With a heart that's true,

Whist'le blowin' and I'm goin' down to Birmingham.
Stop your greas'lin' cause I'm leavin' wish me good-luck too.

CHORUS
I'm going home, way down in Birmingham. Going home, that is just what I am, I can hear my old girl calling me. Oh, Henry! Oh, Henry!

Won't you come back? I'm going to ride that dear old Dixie flyer to my Southern home. My folks will meet me, greet me Way down in Birmingham, I said down in Birmingham. Way down in Birmingham. I'm going ham.
SOME JAZZY JAZZ

“Pretty is the title and that’s just what it is. You can’t keep still when you hear it played and if you like real jazz and “blues.”

“ENUFF SAID”

Here is a part of the chorus, try this on your piano and notice the effect of the little grace notes.
