Coal-Black Mammy

Words by
LADDIE CLIFF

Music by
IVY ST. HELIER

Moderato

Im tired and im foot-sore and im weary,
Im sad, dis-appointed, and im homesick,

I ache from my head down to my toes,

I yearn for my mam-mys tender care,

This world seems to be Mighty dreary to me,
How ill finish my wasted years
And I've shed many tears, Of mis-fortune I've jour-ney Lord-y knows! But I knew where I go that all is sure-ly had my share. But I know that she'll drive a-way my peace-ful, I'll lay on my pillow tosor-row, Her cab- in's just o-ver the night, An' I've pray'd how I've pray'd for that mo-ment, rise, And she'll smile hap-py smiles when she sees me,

Now the end of the long trails in sight,
Bless the love-light that shines in her eyes!

SOMETHING NEW AND DIFFERENT
REFRAIN With expression

'Cause I'm goin', yes, I'm goin' with a love that's ev'ry growin' To that coal-black mammy o' mine.

Not a cent, not a cent, An' my clothes are on-ly lent, All the same shell.

think I'm just fine, How I've dreamed, how I've seen 'em, Ah! times it almost seem'd That the sun would never, never shine; That's why I'm goin', yes, I'm goin', Mighty soon I'll behin', To that coal-black mammy o' mine. 'Cause I'm mine.

"BABY JIM"
AN UNUSUAL SONG
A Lullaby by JOHN B. ARCHER

And originally introduced by him in the production "THE RED LETTER" and now being featured by the writer in cantonments throughout the country.

It's been a long, long time since a lullaby so original, so sweet and appealing has made its appearance and this fact in itself is sufficient to win for it national popularity.

Every legitimate name known to us (and they are many) will be employed to create for it the place it should occupy in the hearts of the music loving people. The seven stanzas of the title was sketched from life by Chicago's well known artist, TUNREY, we believing the song worthy of proper illustration.

REF. Moderato

Mother's blessed Angel, rest your curly yellow head; Journey off to melodioso ben sententoso dream-land In your true-ly bed; Daddy's think-ing of you good night.

neath the shin-ing star, Wish-ing he could see his Ba-by Jim.
