Moderato

I've got some good news, Hon - ey,
We'll meet our high-toned neighbors,

An invitation to the Darktown Ball,
An exhibition of the "Babe" Dolls,

And each very swell af - fair,
All the "highbrows" will be there,

Just to out-class all the rest,
And they'll be

high silk hat, and a frock tail coat,
You wear your Par - is gown, and your new silk shawl,

There dancers from ev - ery for - eign land,
The class - ic, buck and wing, and the wood - en clog.

ain't no doubt about it, babe. Will be the best dressed in the hall.

CHORUS

I'll be down to get you in a Tax-i hon-ey. You bet-ter be read-y a-bout half past eight.

Now dear-in, don't be late, I want to be there when the band starts play-ing. Remem-ber when we get there, Hon-ey, The two steps I'm goin' to have 'en all. Goin' to dance out both my shoes. When they play the "Jol-ly Roll Blues" Tomorrow night, at the Dark-town Strutters' Ball. I'll be The Four Big Song Hits!

You can't go wrong with any Feist Song

You'll want these for your piano, talking machine, or player piano—why not get them now? They are sweeping the country. Everybody wants to hear them, to sing them, and to dance them. They've caught on strong.

Just try over the choruses printed below, and then you'll know why song experts consider these four songs in a class by themselves.

You've simply got to have them if you want to play and sing the latest and most popular tunes—the four really big hits of the year.

To have a performance by singing them in hundreds of cities in thousands of homes of people who applaud vigorously, shows their approval.

If you haven't heard them in your city yet, be sure to tell your Theatre Manager you would like to hear them sung. He will be glad to accommodate you. And get all four of them for yourself today.
