DON'T BE ANGRY WITH ME, DARLING.

SONG AND CHORUS.

Words by W. L. CARDEER. Music by H. F. LAXER.

Allegretto con esprcss.

1. Don't be angry with me, darling, Smile your brightest, sweetest smile!
2. Don't be angry with me, darling, Keep the tear back from your eye.

Keep the joyous twinkle beaming, In your bright eyes all the while.
Turn a friendly, timely warming, Given for the days gone by.

Published according to Act of Congress, 8th. 1875, by C. W. HAXER, In the Office of the Librarian of Congress at Washington.
Let your laugh be one of pleasure, Betro each shadrow from your brow,
For words would I distress you; That one cloud upon your brow.

Be again the heart's sweet treasure, Don't be angry, during, now.
Let not then, my woes depress you, Don't be angry, during, now.

CHORUS.

Don't be angry with me, darling,
Don't be angry with me, darling,
Don't be angry with me, darling,

tempo
Drive a-way that look of pain!
Let your laugh be one of pleasure,
Smile your sweetest smile again.

Drive a-way that look of pain!
Let your laugh be one of pleasure,
Smile your sweetest smile again.
