Moderato

In way down east, down east,
When I was south, down south,
There I

heart is pin-ing, pin-ing for you, You're way out west, out west,
And my

saw some pret-ty, pret-ty places,
When I was north, way north,
I saw

soul is crave-ing, crave-ing for you, I love you so,
man-y, man-y pret-ty fa-ces, not one so fair, Just you, I know, it takes six days to go there with a train, Just None could compare, there's only one place way out in the west, And one week more, and I'll be with you again. I long to be you are there, where with you I long to rest. I long to be

How my love is burning, burning, burning, How my heart is

"You Can't Go Wrong With a 'Feist' Song"

"I Want to Be There"

"I Want to Be There" means where you were born. "I Want to Be There" is not just "another" home-town song. It's a bigger and better home-town song than was ever written before. Recalls to every mother's son and daughter the happiness of play-days—the ecstasy of love-days. It's a safe bet that "I Want to Be There" will knock the sales-records sky high. Why shouldn't it? It takes you home—to mother—to the old dog Rover—and to that "flickering light"—OF COURSE you "want to be there." Today's the day to get your copy. Lyrics by Grant Clarke; music by Jimmie V. Monaco. Introduced and featured by the Inimitable Bessie Wynn.

"My Own Venetian Rose"

It's like "gilding refined gold" to attempt to praise this newest love song with superlatives of speech. Suffice it to say that the words and music are by Al Plantadoll, Jack Gilgau and Joe McCarthy. "My Own Venetian Rose" is the song that Mae Francis lovers to sing. It's the song that YGD will love to sing. AND DANCERS!—here is good news for you! It is also published as a waltz under the title of "Venetian Rose." Get your partner quick when you hear this "hit" of New York and Palm Beach. A haunting, realistic theme. You can't keep still when you hear it.
