want to be a comfort to my husband dear, But he must never roam, people he was fond of are he liked me best, He still may have them call,

Always stay at home, With none of his diversions shall I interfere, That I shant care at all, His former friends I'll never teach him to do test, That I wonder whom I'll marry!

Will he be dark or fair?
I wonder
Will he be good and true?
I wonder

what's the name I'll take in place of Phil-if he'll always do as I expect him burt!

Though doubtful whom I'll marry
