Editor: W. J. Simmons
Managing Editor: Richard D. Morphew
Business Manager: Louis W. Hollis

Volume 10, Number 7. Published monthly with a combined July-August issue at Jackson, Mississippi, by The Citizens' Council, Inc. Second-Class mail privileges authorized at Jackson, Mississippi.

Address all correspondence to: The Citizen
315-325 Plaza Building
Jackson, Mississippi 39201

The opinions expressed in signed articles appearing herein do not necessarily represent official views of The Citizens' Councils of America. Official policy statements are plainly designated. The Citizen is not responsible for unsolicited material submitted for possible publication. All such material should be accompanied by a self-addressed stamped envelope if its return is desired.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
One Year—$3.00
Two Years—$5.50

Single copy ........................................ $1.00
10 copies .......................................... $7.50
Back issues, as available ...................... 50¢ each
(Except for special issues—$1.00)

SPECIAL GROUP AND BULK RATES UPON REQUEST
Advertising rates and availabilities upon request

CONTENTS

EDITORIAL OPINION ........................................ 2

SOME PROBLEMS OF INTEGRATION—
Dr. William S. Milburn .......................... 4

THE FUTURE OF PRIVATE EDUCATION—
Dr. Medford Evans ................................. 13

WHAT'S WITH WATTS?—
William K. Shearer ............................... 21

LISTING OF AVAILABLE LITERATURE ............... 38

Cover—Youthful anglers get ready to try their luck at Ventura Point of Mission Bay Park in San Diego, California.

—Photo from San Diego Tourist Bureau.