The recent television appearance of "Command" Nikita Krushchev, successor to Joseph Stalin as head of the Moscow Politburo and dictator of Communist Russia, coupled with proposals to establish a "revolutionary" national government in the U.S., is all but an inquiry into the most recent pronouncements of the Communist Party on the race question.

The Senate Internal Security subcommittee has called as recently as June 23, 1957 that the Communist Party of the United States is a dictatorship and has issued a detailed statement of the major events leading up to the June 10th National Convention of the Communist Party, U.S.A., held in New York City February 19-22, 1957. It will convene even now on the most skeptical just who is behind the so-called "Free by 83," more accurately "Free by 86," becoming the foremost national issue.

PLAN OF WORK

Reporting for the Plan of Work Committee at the convention, Comrade Walter Reuther pointed out..."There were two central questions that this Committee had to answer: one, an education of the Negro people in this country, that the Negro people would understand the aims and objectives of the NAACP..." The second point... Tập the point at which we stood that we thought the Comrade was a law in this country, that the NAACP..."
