MINUTES OF THE LAST MEETING:

Integration Leaders Work Busily to Influence Public Opinion

- About two and half years ago, we are informed, an article under the byline "Henry Hour" was published in New York, a group of national organizations quietly established the Consultative Committee. According to the byline, as the CCD has, seen publically and has issued no statements. It is comprised of about 100 members, of which the executive director is Dr. Edward R. Labor, of the National Council of Churches; Rabbi Abraham Feldman, Synagogue Council of America; A. W. Hines, president of the Catholic Committee of the South, all of whom serve as co-chairmen. The executive director is Arnold Aronson, of the National Community Relations Advisory Council, Lewis Holmes, of the American Friends Service Committee, is treasurer.

The CCD's "Mass Media Committee" met in New York on February 4. A copy of the minutes has been released into our hands.

The next meeting of the Mass Media Committee will be held on Wednesday, March 18, 1959, at 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon at the N.A.A.C.P. 1201 Chestnut St., Philadelphia 7, Pennsylvania.

1. Approximately 15,000 copies of POOGO and the SPEAKERS SCHOOLS, a reprint of Walt Kelly's comic strip on this subject, will be published by the American Friends Service Committee. The American Jewish Committee, the Southern Regional Council, Anti-Discrimination League, the American Friends Service Committee, and six AFL-CIO unions. Sample copies will be distributed to CCD agencies.

2. A letter was received from Herman Long, of the Southern Regional Council, concerning the desegregation controversy in Arkansas. The letter was distributed widely through the press.

The Richmond News Leader
Friday, February 27, 1959

12 EDITORIAL PAGE

Distributed as a public service by the Association of Citizens' Councils, Greenwood, Mississippi
JOIN YOUR LOCAL CITIZENS' COUNCIL

MINUTES OF THE LAST MEETING:

Integration Leaders Work Busily to Influence Public Opinion

- About two and half years ago, we are informed, an article under the byline "Henry Hour" was published in New York, a group of national organizations quietly established the Consultative Committee. According to the byline, as the CCD has, seen publically and has issued no statements. It is comprised of about 100 members, of which the executive director is Dr. Edward R. Labor, of the National Council of Churches; Rabbi Abraham Feldman, Synagogue Council of America; A. W. Hines, president of the Catholic Committee of the South, all of whom serve as co-chairmen. The executive director is Arnold Aronson, of the National Community Relations Advisory Council, Lewis Holmes, of the American Friends Service Committee, is treasurer.

The CCD's "Mass Media Committee" met in New York on February 4. A copy of the minutes has been released into our hands.

The next meeting of the Mass Media Committee will be held on Wednesday, March 18, 1959, at 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon at the N.A.A.C.P. 1201 Chestnut St., Philadelphia 7, Pennsylvania.

1. Approximately 15,000 copies of POOGO and the SPEAKERS SCHOOLS, a reprint of Walt Kelly's comic strip on this subject, will be published by the American Friends Service Committee. The American Jewish Committee, the Southern Regional Council, Anti-Discrimination League, the American Friends Service Committee, and six AFL-CIO unions. Sample copies will be distributed to CCD agencies.

2. A letter was received from Herman Long, of the Southern Regional Council, concerning the desegregation controversy in Arkansas. The letter was distributed widely through the press.

The Richmond News Leader
Friday, February 27, 1959

12 EDITORIAL PAGE

Distributed as a public service by the Association of Citizens' Councils, Greenwood, Mississippi
JOIN YOUR LOCAL CITIZENS' COUNCIL

MINUTES OF THE LAST MEETING:

Integration Leaders Work Busily to Influence Public Opinion

- About two and half years ago, we are informed, an article under the byline "Henry Hour" was published in New York, a group of national organizations quietly established the Consultative Committee. According to the byline, as the CCD has, seen publically and has issued no statements. It is comprised of about 100 members, of which the executive director is Dr. Edward R. Labor, of the National Council of Churches; Rabbi Abraham Feldman, Synagogue Council of America; A. W. Hines, president of the Catholic Committee of the South, all of whom serve as co-chairmen. The executive director is Arnold Aronson, of the National Community Relations Advisory Council, Lewis Holmes, of the American Friends Service Committee, is treasurer.

The CCD's "Mass Media Committee" met in New York on February 4. A copy of the minutes has been released into our hands.

The next meeting of the Mass Media Committee will be held on Wednesday, March 18, 1959, at 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon at the N.A.A.C.P. 1201 Chestnut St., Philadelphia 7, Pennsylvania.

1. Approximately 15,000 copies of POOGO and the SPEAKERS SCHOOLS, a reprint of Walt Kelly's comic strip on this subject, will be published by the American Friends Service Committee. The American Jewish Committee, the Southern Regional Council, Anti-Discrimination League, the American Friends Service Committee, and six AFL-CIO unions. Sample copies will be distributed to CCD agencies.

2. A letter was received from Herman Long, of the Southern Regional Council, concerning the desegregation controversy in Arkansas. The letter was distributed widely through the press.

The Richmond News Leader
Friday, February 27, 1959

12 EDITORIAL PAGE

Distributed as a public service by the Association of Citizens' Councils, Greenwood, Mississippi
JOIN YOUR LOCAL CITIZENS' COUNCIL

MINUTES OF THE LAST MEETING:

Integration Leaders Work Busily to Influence Public Opinion

- About two and half years ago, we are informed, an article under the byline "Henry Hour" was published in New York, a group of national organizations quietly established the Consultative Committee. According to the byline, as the CCD has, seen publically and has issued no statements. It is comprised of about 100 members, of which the executive director is Dr. Edward R. Labor, of the National Council of Churches; Rabbi Abraham Feldman, Synagogue Council of America; A. W. Hines, president of the Catholic Committee of the South, all of whom serve as co-chairmen. The executive director is Arnold Aronson, of the National Community Relations Advisory Council, Lewis Holmes, of the American Friends Service Committee, is treasurer.

The CCD's "Mass Media Committee" met in New York on February 4. A copy of the minutes has been released into our hands.

The next meeting of the Mass Media Committee will be held on Wednesday, March 18, 1959, at 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon at the N.A.A.C.P. 1201 Chestnut St., Philadelphia 7, Pennsylvania.

1. Approximately 15,000 copies of POOGO and the SPEAKERS SCHOOLS, a reprint of Walt Kelly's comic strip on this subject, will be published by the American Friends Service Committee. The American Jewish Committee, the Southern Regional Council, Anti-Discrimination League, the American Friends Service Committee, and six AFL-CIO unions. Sample copies will be distributed to CCD agencies.

2. A letter was received from Herman Long, of the Southern Regional Council, concerning the desegregation controversy in Arkansas. The letter was distributed widely through the press.

The Richmond News Leader
Friday, February 27, 1959

12 EDITORIAL PAGE

Distributed as a public service by the Association of Citizens' Councils, Greenwood, Mississippi
JOIN YOUR LOCAL CITIZENS' COUNCIL

MINUTES OF THE LAST MEETING:

Integration Leaders Work Busily to Influence Public Opinion

- About two and half years ago, we are informed, an article under the byline "Henry Hour" was published in New York, a group of national organizations quietly established the Consultative Committee. According to the byline, as the CCD has, seen publically and has issued no statements. It is comprised of about 100 members, of which the executive director is Dr. Edward R. Labor, of the National Council of Churches; Rabbi Abraham Feldman, Synagogue Council of America; A. W. Hines, president of the Catholic Committee of the South, all of whom serve as co-chairmen. The executive director is Arnold Aronson, of the National Community Relations Advisory Council, Lewis Holmes, of the American Friends Service Committee, is treasurer.

The CCD's "Mass Media Committee" met in New York on February 4. A copy of the minutes has been released into our hands.

The next meeting of the Mass Media Committee will be held on Wednesday, March 18, 1959, at 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon at the N.A.A.C.P. 1201 Chestnut St., Philadelphia 7, Pennsylvania.

1. Approximately 15,000 copies of POOGO and the SPEAKERS SCHOOLS, a reprint of Walt Kelly's comic strip on this subject, will be published by the American Friends Service Committee. The American Jewish Committee, the Southern Regional Council, Anti-Discrimination League, the American Friends Service Committee, and six AFL-CIO unions. Sample copies will be distributed to CCD agencies.

2. A letter was received from Herman Long, of the Southern Regional Council, concerning the desegregation controversy in Arkansas. The letter was distributed widely through the press.