MINUTES OF THE LAST MEETING:

Integration Leaders Work Busily to Influence Public Opinion

- About two and half years ago, we were advised by an alert man who was in New York, a group of national organizations quietly established the Consultative Committee. This body, known as the CCD, has shunned publicity and has issued no statements. It is comprised today of about 10 major organizations. Its purpose is to coordinate activities in support of racial integration. The largest groups involved are the American Jewish Committee; Rabbi Abraham Feinman, Synagogue Council of America, and the American Friends Service Committee.

The CCD’s “Mass Media Committee” met in New York on Monday, May 4. A copy of its minutes will be sent to all CCD agencies.

Papers throughout the nation have returned to desegregation controversy on economic conditions in Arkansas. Sample copies will be sent to all CCD agencies.

The Turquoise Press has just published as a pamphlet, A STUDY OF RACIAL INTEGRATION IN WASHINGTON’S SCHOOLS, which covers a series of stories which appeared in the Washington Post by Erwin Knoll. The series is a complete survey of progress in the Wash­ington area and should be helpful in counter­testing the various propaganda being spread by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the Southern segregationists, and others.

The American Jewish Committee; Secretary, Harry Fleischman, National Labor Service, laid before the University of Virginia a study of the history of the NAACP and the Negro movement.

The next meeting of the Mass Media Committee will be held Wednesday, March 18, 1960, at 9:30 a.m. to 10 a.m. at the CCD Building, 20 West 40th Street, New York, New York.

Put this on your calendar and please call or write us if you wish to know whether or not you plan to attend.

1. Approximately 15,000 copies of Pogo and The SPEAKEASY SCHOOLS, a reprint of Walt Kelly’s comic strips, subject to publication by the Press and Publication Committee.

2. A letter was received from Herman Long, Director of the National Association of Negro Press Editors and Publishers, indicating that an effort is being made to work with the various Negro newspapers in New York, a group of national organizations quietly established the Consultative Committee.

3. The annual report of the group of national organizations, consisting of 10 members, has been made available for public distribution.

4. The American Friends Service Committee, as the NAACP, has issued no statements.

5. The Southern Regional Council reported that it will reprint the Arkansas Gazette report on the death of the segregation controversy on economic conditions in Arkansas.

6. The National Urban League has published a life-saving pamphlet, which covers a series of stories which appeared in the Washington Post by Erwin Knoll. The series is an excellent survey of progress in the Wash­ington area and should be helpful in counter­testing the various propaganda being spread by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the Southern segregationists, and others.

7. The American Jewish Committee; Secretary, Harry Fleischman, National Labor Service, laid before the University of Virginia a study of the history of the NAACP and the Negro movement.

8. The next meeting of the Mass Media Committee will be held Wednesday, March 18, 1960, at 9:30 a.m. to 10 a.m. at the CCD Building, 20 West 40th Street, New York, New York.

Put this on your calendar and please call or write us if you wish to know whether or not you plan to attend.

1. Approximately 15,000 copies of Pogo and The SPEAKEASY SCHOOLS, a reprint of Walt Kelly’s comic strips, subject to publication by the Press and Publication Committee.

2. A letter was received from Herman Long, Director of the National Association of Negro Press Editors and Publishers, indicating that an effort is being made to work with the various Negro newspapers in New York, a group of national organizations quietly established the Consultative Committee.

3. The annual report of the group of national organizations, consisting of 10 members, has been made available for public distribution.

4. The American Friends Service Committee, as the NAACP, has issued no statements.

5. The Southern Regional Council reported that it will reprint the Arkansas Gazette report on the death of the segregation controversy on economic conditions in Arkansas.

6. The National Urban League has published a life-saving pamphlet, which covers a series of stories which appeared in the Washington Post by Erwin Knoll. The series is an excellent survey of progress in the Wash­ington area and should be helpful in counter­testing the various propaganda being spread by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the Southern segregationists, and others.

7. The American Jewish Committee; Secretary, Harry Fleischman, National Labor Service, laid before the University of Virginia a study of the history of the NAACP and the Negro movement.

8. The next meeting of the Mass Media Committee will be held Wednesday, March 18, 1960, at 9:30 a.m. to 10 a.m. at the CCD Building, 20 West 40th Street, New York, New York.

Put this on your calendar and please call or write us if you wish to know whether or not you plan to attend.

MINUTES OF THE LAST MEETING:

Integration Leaders Work Busily to Influence Public Opinion

- About two and half years ago, we were advised by an alert man who was in New York, a group of national organizations quietly established the Consultative Committee. This body, known as the CCD, has shunned publicity and has issued no statements. It is comprised today of about 10 major organizations. Its purpose is to coordinate activities in support of racial integration. The largest groups involved are the American Jewish Committee; Rabbi Abraham Feinman, Synagogue Council of America, and the American Friends Service Committee.

The CCD’s “Mass Media Committee” met in New York on Monday, May 4. A copy of its minutes will be sent to all CCD agencies.

Papers throughout the nation have returned to desegregation controversy on economic conditions in Arkansas. Sample copies will be sent to all CCD agencies.

The Turquoise Press has just published as a pamphlet, A STUDY OF RACIAL INTEGRATION IN WASHINGTON’S SCHOOLS, which covers a series of stories which appeared in the Washington Post by Erwin Knoll. The series is an excellent survey of progress in the Wash­ington area and should be helpful in counter­testing the various propaganda being spread by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the Southern segregationists, and others.

The American Jewish Committee; Secretary, Harry Fleischman, National Labor Service, laid before the University of Virginia a study of the history of the NAACP and the Negro movement.

The next meeting of the Mass Media Committee will be held Wednesday, March 18, 1960, at 9:30 a.m. to 10 a.m. at the CCD Building, 20 West 40th Street, New York, New York.

Put this on your calendar and please call or write us if you wish to know whether or not you plan to attend.

1. Approximately 15,000 copies of Pogo and The SPEAKEASY SCHOOLS, a reprint of Walt Kelly’s comic strips, subject to publication by the Press and Publication Committee.

2. A letter was received from Herman Long, Director of the National Association of Negro Press Editors and Publishers, indicating that an effort is being made to work with the various Negro newspapers in New York, a group of national organizations quietly established the Consultative Committee.

3. The annual report of the group of national organizations, consisting of 10 members, has been made available for public distribution.

4. The American Friends Service Committee, as the NAACP, has issued no statements.

5. The Southern Regional Council reported that it will reprint the Arkansas Gazette report on the death of the segregation controversy on economic conditions in Arkansas.

6. The National Urban League has published a life-saving pamphlet, which covers a series of stories which appeared in the Washington Post by Erwin Knoll. The series is an excellent survey of progress in the Wash­ington area and should be helpful in counter­testing the various propaganda being spread by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the Southern segregationists, and others.

7. The American Jewish Committee; Secretary, Harry Fleischman, National Labor Service, laid before the University of Virginia a study of the history of the NAACP and the Negro movement.

8. The next meeting of the Mass Media Committee will be held Wednesday, March 18, 1960, at 9:30 a.m. to 10 a.m. at the CCD Building, 20 West 40th Street, New York, New York.

Put this on your calendar and please call or write us if you wish to know whether or not you plan to attend.

MINUTES OF THE LAST MEETING:

Integration Leaders Work Busily to Influence Public Opinion

- About two and half years ago, we were advised by an alert man who was in New York, a group of national organizations quietly established the Consultative Committee. This body, known as the CCD, has shunned publicity and has issued no statements. It is comprised today of about 10 major organizations. Its purpose is to coordinate activities in support of racial integration. The largest groups involved are the American Jewish Committee; Rabbi Abraham Feinman, Synagogue Council of America, and the American Friends Service Committee.

The CCD’s “Mass Media Committee” met in New York on Monday, May 4. A copy of its minutes will be sent to all CCD agencies.

Papers throughout the nation have returned to desegregation controversy on economic conditions in Arkansas. Sample copies will be sent to all CCD agencies.

The Turquoise Press has just published as a pamphlet, A STUDY OF RACIAL INTEGRATION IN WASHINGTON’S SCHOOLS, which covers a series of stories which appeared in the Washington Post by Erwin Knoll. The series is an excellent survey of progress in the Wash­ington area and should be helpful in counter­testing the various propaganda being spread by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the Southern segregationists, and others.

The American Jewish Committee; Secretary, Harry Fleischman, National Labor Service, laid before the University of Virginia a study of the history of the NAACP and the Negro movement.

The next meeting of the Mass Media Committee will be held Wednesday, March 18, 1960, at 9:30 a.m. to 10 a.m. at the CCD Building, 20 West 40th Street, New York, New York.

Put this on your calendar and please call or write us if you wish to know whether or not you plan to attend.

1. Approximately 15,000 copies of Pogo and The SPEAKEASY SCHOOLS, a reprint of Walt Kelly’s comic strips, subject to publication by the Press and Publication Committee.

2. A letter was received from Herman Long, Director of the National Association of Negro Press Editors and Publishers, indicating that an effort is being made to work with the various Negro newspapers in New York, a group of national organizations quietly established the Consultative Committee.

3. The annual report of the group of national organizations, consisting of 10 members, has been made available for public distribution.

4. The American Friends Service Committee, as the NAACP, has issued no statements.

5. The Southern Regional Council reported that it will reprint the Arkansas Gazette report on the death of the segregation controversy on economic conditions in Arkansas.

6. The National Urban League has published a life-saving pamphlet, which covers a series of stories which appeared in the Washington Post by Erwin Knoll. The series is an excellent survey of progress in the Wash­ington area and should be helpful in counter­testing the various propaganda being spread by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the Southern segregationists, and others.

7. The American Jewish Committee; Secretary, Harry Fleischman, National Labor Service, laid before the University of Virginia a study of the history of the NAACP and the Negro movement.

8. The next meeting of the Mass Media Committee will be held Wednesday, March 18, 1960, at 9:30 a.m. to 10 a.m. at the CCD Building, 20 West 40th Street, New York, New York.

Put this on your calendar and please call or write us if you wish to know whether or not you plan to attend.

1. Approximately 15,000 copies of Pogo and The SPEAKEASY SCHOOLS, a reprint of Walt Kelly’s comic strips, subject to publication by the Press and Publication Committee.