Southern Digest makes its debut as the title page of a new periodical that will exist as the basic way of life, i.e., the principle of organization of our Constitution.

Printing Magic—by employment of the latest methods of printing, the reader will enjoy an unusual, rare treat.

In this issue, we are pleased to present the following features:

In the next issue, we will be presenting a special section on the history of our country, from the founding fathers to the present day. We hope you will enjoy this exciting new periodical and look forward to future issues.

Enter the opponent. Let him destroy Your way of life...