Dear Mr. Meredith,

You should be very proud of your great accomplishment. You have instilled into our new generation of white people more of the feelings of our grandparents toward the negro than we, the parents of this generation could have done for the rest of our lives. Who do you think will gain any benefit from your bloody accomplishment?

You — No — You will never receive a degree from Old Miss. The U.S. Gov. — No — When we are willing to sacrifice the lives of many American citizens for the wants of one man — It is a disgrace — The Negro — No — I am sure you will find out the grief, suffering and hardships that negroes in Mississippi especially, and the rest of the southern states...
