Carissimo James,

we are three Italian girls and we study in the high classical school. It was honour to hear that you couldn’t go like the other students to the University. We have written on the newspapers your story and we are very glad for the end of it. This is right. We hope with all our heart the they will be no more discriminations between whites and negroes. Many wishes and kindest regards.

Andre Baj  Riri deou  Amelia Musettta