Dear Mr. Meredith:

At this distance, your attempt to enroll in "Ole Miss" does not add much lustre to NAACP.

Rome was not built in a day. Any firm support here comes from the Jews, and they are always fanning about discrimination, even though they are the first to practice it.

On Oct 7, Sammy Loston refused to ride in a patrol wagon because driven by a white man. Discrimination! Thy name is prejudice!

Actually, discrimination is not based as much on colour as the agitation seems to imply. No one would ever "discriminate" against Booker T Washington or George Washington Carver.

Discrimination will always exist between groups differing in ideas, ideals, manners, purposes, knowledge, and in the multitudinous facets of life and daily living.

When I read about Washington and Carver in their biographies, I was filled with admiration for the...