Dear Jane,

Cardon the paper. We just moved and haven't unpacked the writing things yet.

My heart and hand go out to you. You are doing a noble thing. You are a shield of great courage.

Christ was taunted and he has lived to be the greatest man in the land. I keep up your faith and courage. You are more American than those who taunt you.

Jackie Robinson had his tough time. The Jews the Coles, the Irish. Almost everyone and creed and color had there crucifixion.

But this is what is going to give you victory.

You will really try, and the color line will be broken.
God will see to that. Beloved, He will see you through.
And as a White American I will pray for you.

My prayer will be that God will supply you with the courage and fortitude. Give you the 'steel of mind' and health to see this through.
God Bless You.
