Dear Mr. Meredith,

Most people, including myself, don't have the courage to do what you did. If more people were like you, the world would be a better place in which to live. Never lose your courage and sense of justice. May God bless you.

Sincerely,
Sandra Brown