To let you know I'm thinking of you...
Am I then
that your concern is more for
Are there with you today,
my thoughts and prayers
So this just comes to show,
At least that’s what folks say,
thoughts
always stand for

P.S. Yours truly,

it is for me. For it is quite essential that we, in the U.S.A. recognize the FACT of brotherhood. And, our Heavenly Father, has created us all of one blood and loves us all.

"My people perish for lack of knowledge of the nature of God," is as true today as when the prophets thus foretold the downfall of Israel. God IS LOVE! God is Omniproduct! Therefore love is the Greatest Force in the Universe! And as you return good for evil—pray for those who persecute you, you will be demonstrating that POWER.
"Trust in the Lord with all thy heart, lean not to thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge Him and He shall direct thy paths."

(Proverbs 3:5,6)

May the Lord bless thee and keep thee ever in His care.

"Lovingly,
Grandma Hoff"

52. EVENTIDE 10 10 10. 10
Henry F. Lyte, 1847
William H. Monk, 1861

1. Abide with me, fast falls the evening tide;
The darkness deepens, Lord, with me abide;
When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, O abide with me.

2. Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away;
Change and decay in all around I see;
O Thou, who changest not, abide with me.

3. I need Thy presence every passing hour;
What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
Who like Thyself my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sun shine, O abide with me.

4. I fear no foe, with Thee at hand to bless;
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness;
Where is death's sting? where, grave, thy victory?
Triumph still, if Thou abide with me.

5. Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing eyes;
Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies;
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee;
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me. Amen.
53. SABBATH  7 7 7 7 7.
John Newton, 1774; alt.

Lowell Mason, 1824

1. Safely through another week, God has brought us on our way;
2. While we pray for pard’ning grace, Thro’ the dear Re-deem-er’s name,
3. Here we come Thy name to praise; May we feel Thy presence near;
4. May Thy Gos- pel’s joy-ful sound Con-quer sin-ners, com-fort saints;

Let us now a bless-ing seek, Wait-ing in His courts to-day;
Show Thy rec-on-cil-ed face, Take a way our sin and shame;
May Thy glo-ry meet our eyes, While we in Thy house ap-pear;
Make the fruits of grace a-bound, Bring re-lief from all com-plaints;

Day of all the week the best, Em-blem of e-ter-nal rest;
From our world-ly cares set free, May we rest this day in Thee;
Here af-ford us, Lord, a taste Of our ev-er-last-ing feast;
Thus may all our Sab-baths prove, Till we join the Church a-bove;

work together for good to them that love God”
Romans 8:28

To them that love God. If then you love God the assurance of this verse is for you also. Whether we love God or not, we can know. Jesus says: “If ye love Me, keep My commandments.” So the questions is, are we keeping God’s commandments, striving earnestly to keep them? And then not some, but all, especially those that are hardest for us personally to keep because of our personal sinful disposition and inclination.

If you do really keep them, then you have a right to claim this great promise and know that whatever comes into your life will work together for your good.

All things. That includes everything. Sorrows as well as joys, adversity as well as prosperity, sickness as well as health, disappointments as well as encouragements, trials, as well as triumphs, death as well as life. ALL THINGS.

All these things work together for good. Even those things which would seem to be to our hurt. God can make good come out of evil, something which we cannot do. Think of Joseph being sold as a slave into Egypt. All things work together for good.

Believe that. Trust your heavenly Father. Then you can become reconciled to whatever befalls you. Then there is comfort in adversities and afflictions. Then the enemy will never have cause to rejoice.

SOME DAY

Some day all doubt and mystery
Will be made clear;
The clouds that cast their shadows 'round
Will disappear.

Some day what seemed a trouble sore
And caused much pain,
Will prove to be God's blessing sent
For every gain.

Some day, all wearied, we will rest
In sweet content.
Then we will know it proved the best
What God has sent.

And looking back with vision cleared
Over the span
Of fleeting years we'll see at last
God's perfect plan.

And knowing that the path, though steep,
Was God's own way,
Will understand His wise design,
At last, — SOME DAY.
