Dear Mr. Meredith

We are students attending the University of Western Ontario, Canada. This letter is one of commendation to you, and others such as you who are trying to make a breach into an established custom.

We have been appalled at the disgraceful exhibition that has occurred as a result of your entrée into the University. Obviously these students, imbued in custom are of a very shallow nature.

Although, at times, it may not seem apparent to you, you do have many sympathizers. You are facing a situation that very few would have the courage to face. She hopes that the outcome does not leave you bitter— as you have every right to be—and that you will not judge the mentality of all students in the same light as those from your own university.

Sincerely Yours,

Denise Lumphare
