Mr. Schwieritz
Früstenberg-Gymnasium

October 3rd, 1962

Dear Sir!

A young teacher at a grammar school in a small town in Western Germany writes you. I shall not bore you with a long letter.

In the radio and the newspapers I followed with interest and growing indignation the news concerning your troubles and difficulties in getting the enrollment at Oxford University.

The behavior of the leading authorities of the State of Mississippi and of some fanatic individuals in the South States