Dear Mr. Maradit,

I don't know well English but I hope you will understand me. Words that come from a heart to heart don't need language.

I heard very much of course, about you, and you made me to be proud that there are people like you. You want to learn and you do it without being afraid from all this foolish "people".

I and all my friends, and I know that all our country, say you: Thank you. Thank you that you prove that there are some people in the world, proud and admire the freedom, like us.

Don't are they ashamed to do
