Christmas In Piney Woods

There will never die out as long as there is a United States of America the spirit of bringing Christmas cheer to others through:

Gatherings of families and friends,
Christmas dinners,
The giving of gifts.

For the Boys and Girls — orphans, half orphans and others — down here in Mississippi:

A good Christmas dinner would make Christmas real at the little school in the Piney Woods. Gifts like clothing, fountain pens, carpenter’s tools, etc.

For the School:

No matter how small — toward a fund of $10,000.00 for a new well. (Our well that supplies us with water to use “externally, eternally and internally” gave signs last July and August of giving out.)

In the joy of spraying a human orchard,

Founder and Principal
The Piney Woods Country Life School
Piney Woods, Mississippi

Lawrence C. Jones